Employer Sponsorship → Temporary Skill Shortage (TSS) visa (subclass 482)

TSS Visa allows Australians and Overseas business's obtain visa's for current and potential staff in order to work in Australia.

TSS Visa → The Stages

There are three stages in obtaining a Subclass 482 visa:

1. Sponsorship Approval (Standard Business Sponsorship)

A business that is approved as a Standard Business Sponsor (SBS) allows the employer to sponsor skilled works to fill positions within their business. A business is only granted one SBS (Approval) at any time; such approval is valid for up to 5 years (based on a standard business approval). Currently there are no limitations on the number of workers that can be sponsored during the term of the SBS.

2. Nomination

Once a business has been approved, the business must lodge an application to Nominate the position (role) that a skilled worker will fulfil.

3. TSS Visa Application

The Nominated employee must lodge a visa application outlining he/she meets the relevant criteria.
