The Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme or RSMS visa is a permanent employer sponsored visa which requires a job offer in a Regional Area of Australia.

Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme (RSMS) → The Stages

1. RCB Certification

The Regional Certifying Body will assess that the position is genuine (RCB is also known as Regional Development Authority)

2. Nomination

During the nomination process, the business operations are reviewed in addition to the position offered to the employee.

3. Visa Application

Three Application Pathways exist for this visa

Option 1: Temporary Residence Transition Stream. Applies to applicants that have held a Subclass 457 or TSS visa and been employed by an Australian organization for a minimum of 3 years. In this instance a skill assessment will not be required and the Nominee will only require an IELTS score of 6.0 in each test band (or equivalent English exam).

Option 2: Direct Entry Stream. Allows individuals to apply for Permanent Residency directly regardless of their current employment or visa status. Applicants will only be required to hold a minimum of a trade certificate or Diploma and can substitute the qualification with a formal skills assessment in their nominated occupation. Previous work experience will not be required but applicants will require an IELTS score of 6.0 in each test band (or equivalent English exam).
